

School Psychology Graduate Training Opportunities

Application due December 1st, 2023

Preparation for future school psychologists to provide evidence-based, trauma-informed, and culturally affirming mental health services in 3 different settings. Multi-year financial support including a living stipend and partial in-state tuition coverage.

Bilingual Track

Services in Spanish-speaking communities

Coverage, state conference funding, opportunity for technology funds

Mentorship, bilingual supervision & professional development

Post graduation: 3-year commitment to serving a Spanish-Speaking population

Students must be Bilingual to qualify for this track

Scholarship Benefits:

67% tuition coverage
$50,000 stipend over 3 years
Additional funding for state conference funding
Opportunity for technology
School-based mental health training

Rural Track

Services in rural setting.

Coverage, state conference funding, opportunity for technology and travel funds

Mentorship, supervision & professional development

Post graduation: 3-year commitment to serving in a rural community

Scholarship Benefits:

67% tuition coverage
$50,000 stipend over 3 years
Opportunity for technology
School-based mental health training
Additional funding for state conference funding
Commute funding to rural school sites

Northern Colorado Track

Services in Northern Colorado.

Mentorship, supervision & professional development

Post graduation: 3-year commitment to work for Greeley Evans District 6 in CO

Prioritizes students from diverse backgrounds (especially those who identify as Hispanic/Latino/Latine and are bilingual)

Scholarship Benefits:

67% tuition coverage
$16,000 stipend over 3 years

Questions?

Contact:

jacqueline.anderson@unco.edu

Or learn more about this program by using the QR code

UNIVERSITY OF
NORTHERN
COLORADO